

America's Numero Uno Comic® "Hear No Equal" by Mr Carlos Montage

As you know, the GOP took a real hammering in the last election, so we've started meeting secretly with consultants like you – edgy young white guys in their late 50s to find out what America really wants. So gimme some truth!

Well, Negroes, Mexicans, and girls all basically want strong, preferably older, cranky white male leaders.

Fascinating! We had suspected as much, but we were hesitant to dream the big dream!

Simply put: All Americans want the rich to get richer, because they see them as role models.

Even the Orientals?

More so than all the tea in China.

The people want a vigilante, mean-ass evangelical Christian dog-eat-dog society based on oppression and tyranny. They want endless wars, no environmental protections, guns in schools, fear, fear, fear, and, well, they support gay marriage.

Gay marriage? You've got to be kidding.
